

Favorite Quotations for Money

Make your money work for you and you won't have to work so hard for it.

The habit of saving money requires more force of character than most people have developed, for the reason that saving means self-denial and sacrifice of amusements and pleasures in scores of different ways.

If you want to achieve success, make today the day you stop drifting. Decide on a goal. Write it down. Memorize it. Determine exactly how you plan to achieve it. Then begin by putting your plan into action... now!

Every defeat, every disappointment, every adversity carries with it the seed of an equivalent or greater benefit.

Ask yourself if what you're doing today is getting you closer to where you want to be tomorrow.

A moment of choice is a moment of truth. It's the testing point of our character and competence.

The chains of habit are too weak to be felt until they are too strong to be broken.

If you can't be generous when it's hard, you won't be when it's easy.

The wise man saves for the future, but the foolish man spends whatever he gets.
Proverbs 21:20

Remember that true happiness comes from virtuous living.

The successful person budgets time, income and expenditures, living within his means. The failure squanders time and income with a contemptuous disregard for their value.

Success occurs when opportunity meets preparation.

You shouldn't have a $1,000 meeting to solve a $100 problem.

The quality of your life is limited by your weaknesses.

The ability to save a portion of your income is a good index of character.

Consolidate your investments. Most investment advisers agree that as long as you pick a reputable family of funds, it almost doesn't matter which one you invest in over the long haul. The important thing is to set aside funds and invest consistently, year in and year out.

One of the most important lessons that experience teaches is that on the whole success depends more upon character than either intellect or fortune. (William Lake)

If you don't focus on the money but on doing a good job, the money will come.

The quality and quantity of the service you render, plus the mental attitude in which you render it, determines the amount of pay you get and the sort of job you hold.

Does anyone remember the old sign over every cash register in the country, In God We Trust - All Others Must Pay Cash?
